

PODCAST TOPICS FOR ENTREPRENEURS, LEADERS & BUSINESS OWNERS

Building Stronger Businesses. Designing More Intentional Lives. Creating Greater Impact.

Most people know Ian Tonks through EOS Worldwide, where he has spent nearly a decade helping entrepreneurial leadership teams strengthen vision, accountability, alignment, and execution.

After facilitating nearly 1,000 leadership team sessions across more than 30 industries, Ian began noticing a recurring pattern. Many business challenges were not simply operational. They were leadership, management, wellness, fulfillment, culture, and purpose challenges.

That realization led to the creation of Ian Tonks Companies, an ecosystem of businesses designed to help entrepreneurial leaders build stronger organizations while living more intentional, meaningful, and impactful lives.

Today, Ian's work spans business operating systems, management development, life planning, wellness, philanthropy, and Christian-led business leadership. While each company serves a different purpose, they are all connected by a common mission:

Helping people build stronger businesses, more meaningful lives, and greater impact.
